

Master's degree programs in English Far East Federal University

FEFU strives to provide top-level international education, and has collaborated with world renowned universities to create English-language Master's degree programs in specialties of great importance.

		General Information	Important information	Core subjects	Learning outcomes
Institute of Oriental Studies - School of Regional and International Studies	Russia in the Asia-Pacific: Politics, Economics, Security	Master's degree program "Russia in the Asia-Pacific: Politics, Economics, Security" is administered by FEFU's Oriental Institute – School of Regional and International Studies. It has a cross-disciplinary curriculum, offering courses in diverse fields, such as Political Science, International Political Economy, Security Studies, Regional Studies, Russian Studies, Law, Languages and	The applicants entering the Program should have an accredited undergraduate degree. Applicants have to take admission examinations in English language, history and theory of international relations (general area test) in the volume required by the Bachelor's Program in International relations. Program start date: September 1 Duration: 2 years	1 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Geopolitics of the Asia-Pacific; • Issues of multilateral security in the Asia-Pacific; • Intercultural communication; • Foreign language for specific purposes; • Research methodology; • Research seminar "Contemporary issues in International relations"; • Writing a Master's degree thesis; • Instructional training. 2 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • World politics and the New World Order; • Foreign policy process and formation of Russia's foreign policy; • Foreign language for specific purposes; • Business foreign language; • Foreign policy analysis; • International Relations in North-East Asia; • International political Economy; • Research seminar "Contemporary issues in international relations"; • Writing a Master's degree thesis; • Instructional training. 3 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Institutes of International Integration in the Asia-Pacific; • Business foreign language; 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability for free academic and occupation communication in a foreign language environment; • Knowledge of major research tools and theories of international relations; • Awareness of the major factors and processes in international security; • Ability for analyzing the process of decision-making in foreign political issues and compiling analytical evaluations of current events, major documents and foreign policy issues; • Ability to execute and organize the work as a part of international organizations, government bodies of the Russian Federation and

		Intercultural Communication. The program provides students with knowledge about international relations of the Asia-Pacific, about Russia's foreign policy, Russian Far East and its multi-faceted engagement with the Asia-Pacific important processes in the sphere of international security and with their roles in maintenance of international peace.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Russian Far East as a sub national actor; • English Academic Writing; • Diplomacy and conflict resolution in the Asia-Pacific; • Research seminar "Contemporary issues in international relations"; • Writing a Master's degree thesis; • Teaching training. 4 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • International law and its application in the Asia-Pacific; • Non-state actors in World politics; • Writing a Master's degree thesis; • Research training; • Final state attestation. 	foreign services of their countries; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awareness of the influence of humanitarian factors on international relations as a whole.
School of Business and Public Administration	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Project Management 	The Master of Science in Project Management is a professional qualification, providing students with an educational platform for a career in project management. While building the skills, tools and techniques	Admission requirements: the applicants entering the MSPMP should have an accredited undergraduate degree in engineering, business, economics, math, computer science or other sciences. Minimum GPA requirements is 3.0 (B)	1 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Statistics for Managerial Decisions; • Introduction to Graduate Research Skills; • Managerial Economics; • Management in the Global Environment; • Academic Writing for Graduate Students; • Scientific Research Work. 2 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Financial Management; • Corporate Governance; • Research Methods in Management; • Strategic Analysis; • Organizational Behavior; 	Graduates of the MSPMP are expected to be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan project affectively and successfully, taking into consideration the quadruple constraints of time, cost, resources and specifications; • Demonstrate an understanding of effective, ethical

		required for monitoring and tracking project costs and time-schedules, students develop the ability to manage the project resources and communication skills necessary to successfully complete a project. The Major of Science in Project Management (MSPMP) is thus ideal for professionals who want to enhance their ability to execute complex projects, motivate people, and achieve cost-effective results. All the teaching is carried out exclusively in English.	Program start date: September 1 Duration: 2 years	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Corporate Finance; • Foundations of Project Management; • Innovation Management; • Strategic Management; • Organizational-managerial Practice; • Scientific Research Seminar “Innovative Entrepreneurship and Project Management Problems”. 3 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Intercultural Communication and Leadership; • Risk Project Management; • Advanced Methods of Project Management; • Quality Project Management; • Procurement Management; • Communication Management; • Financial and Strategic Management of Projects; • Pedagogical Practice; • Scientific Research Seminar “Practical Skills for Project Managers”; 4 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scientific Research Work; • Research Practice; • Final State Attestation. 	leadership strategies and skills; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Utilize analytical and critical thinking skills in order to synthesize, evaluate and integrate concepts and knowledge for effective decision analysis and problem solving; • Communicate information professionally; • Work effectively as problem-solving team members; • Develop from the basic project plan a work-breakdown structure to the lowest granularity permitted by cost.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hospitality Management 	Graduates of the Master of Science program in	Admission requirements: Persons with Bachelor’s	1 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Social-economic Research in Hospitality; • Law in Hospitality; • Foreign Language (Russian/English); 	As a result of master’s program graduate should possess the following competencies:

	Hospitality Management are well prepared to step into numerous mid-level service management and training director positions. The core courses facilitate the paradigm shift from manufacturing to service and move the focus from traditional organizational structures to an organization where employees must provide several functions, sometimes simultaneously. This multifunctional approach provides a new avenue to examine service organizations and explore such issues as teamwork, organizational change, performance	degree/Specialist and wishing to learn the master's program are enrolled in master's degree according to the results of entrance examinations, which are developed by the University. Program start date: September 1 Duration: 2 years	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Convention Management and Service; • Business English; • Leadership and Management in Hospitality; • An Introduction in Hospitality; • Scientific-Research Work. 2 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Information Systems and Technologies; • Foreign Language (Russian/English); • Hospitality Industry Financial Accountings; • Supervision in Hospitality Industry; • Hospitality sales and Marketing; • International Business and Management; • Cross-cultural Communications; • Scientific Research Work; • Scientific Industrial Practice. 3 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Managing Hospitality Human Resources; • Project Management; • Hospitality Planning; • Management of Food and Beverage Operations; • Financial Management; • Scientific and Practical Seminar: "Managing Front Office Operations" • Scientific Industrial Practice; • Scientific Research Work. 4 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Scientific Research Work; • Scientific Research Practice; • Technological Practice; • Final State Attestation. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The ability or active social mobility in profession activities; • Willingness to take responsibility for decision taken within the professional competence to make non-standard decisions, resolve problem situations; • Willingness to improve the hotel activities and formation of relation of relations with client.
--	--	--	--	--

		metrics, and customer relationship management. The teaching of all disciplines is carried out exclusively in English.
School of Engineering	Offshore and Coastal Engineering	The two-year Master of Science program in Offshore and Coastal Engineering was designed to meet the growing demand for skilled professionals in the offshore and coastal construction industry. The program consists of general principles and methods that give students the tools to meet and solve challenges on an advanced engineering level, not only inside their area of specialization. Projects and problems in the	Admission requirements: applicants must have Bachelor's/specialist's degree in the same or related major; preference will be given to Bachelors (specialist) in civil and marine engineering. Program start date: September 1 Duration: 2 years	1 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Philosophic Problems of Science Engineering; • Mathematical Modeling; • Special Sections of Higher Mathematics; • Offshore and Coastal Engineering; • Mechanics of Materials; • Business Foreign Language; • Applied Geotechnics; • Scientific Research Work. 2 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Methodology of Scientific Research; • Design and Analysis of Experiments; • Structural Dynamics; • IT in Construction; • Business Foreign Language; • Offshore & Port Facilities; • Reinforced Concrete Structures; • Industrial Practice; • Research Industrial Practice; • Pedagogical Practice; • Scientific Research Work; 3 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Basics of Pedagogic and Adult Teaching; • Methods of Scientific and Technical Problems' Solving in Construction; • Offshore & Port Facilities; 	The program prepares students to be competent in resource and land use planning, environmental impact assessment, consulting work, teaching, and research, and encourages students to be active members of the global offshore and coastal engineering community. Students gain knowledge of diverse and valuable resources of the coast and the sea, understand current conditions, and gain tools and expertise to drive the sustainable use of marine resources.

		program are often taken from the offshore industry, and students gain valuable experience due to the School's close contacts with industry.		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Innovation Management and Risk Management in Construction; • Concrete Technology – Advanced Design; • Foundation Engineering; • Research Practice; • Scientific Research Work. 4 SEMESTER <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preparation and Defense of a Thesis; • Scientific Research Work.
School of Law	Russian Business and Investment Law	Typically of presented program is defined by recent raise in investing and financial activity performed by corporations of China, South Korea and other Asia-Pacific countries on the markets of Russian Federation and more specifically Russian Far East. In that case we continue to observe growing necessity in widening of Russian legal knowledge among business environment of interested partners. We	Admission requirements: all entrant candidates should provide their graduate diploma of established in Russian Federation or another state standard. English language skills sufficient for participation in high-education program are also required. IELTS and TOEFL certificates may be considered as conditions for priority in entrance. Candidates responding to those requirements should pass the entrance examination in Theory of Government and Rights which will be held in form of interview in English.	1 YEAR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Philosophy of Law; • Methodology of Legal science; • Foreign Language in professional sphere; • Basics of Russian constitutional law; • Introduction in Russian Criminal Law; • Basics of Russian civil and business law. 2 YEAR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal regulation of foreign investment in Russia and Asia-Pacific; • Legal status of special economic zones in Russia; • Litigation and arbitration with foreign participants; • Russian business tax law; • Fraud and financial crime; • Russian legislation and international private law. 3 YEAR <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal practice and final state examination. 	LLM program 'Russian business and investment law' (RBIL) designed for training of high-class lawyers employed in companies and organizations performing international business activities and transactions with Russian partners. Structure of program includes general courses on basics of Russian legal system and its specific measurements from one side, and peculiar courses enclosed on legal and business practice in Russian Far East.

		assume that our considerable role in legal matters may be of invaluable use for foreign partners' better understanding of Russian private law regulations, comparative legal analysis and both legal and business practice in Russia.	Program start date: September 1 Duration: 3 years
--	--	---	---	--	--